

Hearing of Contempt Petition Reg; Modified Parity pended for a week to Feb 19, 2014.

Court rejects Govt demand for long adjournment

Contempt Petition Reg; Modified Parity, which came up for hearing the 12th February, 2014, before the Principal Bench of Central Administrative Tribunal, New Delhi, has been adjourned to 19th of February, 2014, after long pleadings by the Govt for long adjournment.

Proceedings on 12th Feb were very positive- given the multi-pronged strategy the GOI - the Contempts were trying to confuse and force the Court to buy time- like staggered SLPs, RP, Curative Petition etc besides t bringing in the Financial Implication etc. - none of which was accepted by the Court.

Sr Counsel for the Petitioners argued quite forcefully against any further adjournment.
